Your point on Sr. S is well taken. Without a zip he probably used the phone book. I do not recall if he had my zip. So how did Sr. S., in Mexico City, get access to a Phila. phone book? On the other hand, the CIA has all the zips available. I say all because there are indications of a mass mailing. Through his friend Earl Golz Penn Jones got a strong play on the non-story in Dallas. HW 2/22/77